ARRANGEMENTS PROGRESSING FOR MEETINGS
TO BE HELD ON NEW YORK TRACKS.

Jockey Club Stewards Adopt Resolutions of Respect in Memory of J. Pierpont Morgan, a Member of Their Organization from Its Inception.

New York, April 10.—It is apparent that two-year-olds will play a prominent part in New York racing during the season to open at Belmont Park, May 30. With the cessation of racing here two years ago, so many horses were shipped abroad that the supply of older horses is none too plentiful. There has also been a big falling off in thoroughbred breeding, but the records at the office of the Registrar of the Jockey Club show that 2,400 foals were registered in 1911. Many of these will race this year. Almost 2,000 of them have been named. This is an unusually good percentage of names for the country at large through the development of the thoroughbred horse, which could only come by racing. He gave racing his influence at all times and, being a natural sportsman, it is not beyond reason that only his multitudinous business affairs kept him from becoming an active factor in the sport.

The resolutions of respect passed today by the stewards of the Jockey Club in memory of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, who was a member of the Jockey Club, were couched in the following language: "The members of the Jockey Club have met this day to place on record an expression of their sorrow for the death of their late and honored associate, John Pierpont Morgan, and to record their high appreciation of his character as a man and his career of vast usefulness and unstinted benevolence. "Mr. Morgan would have attained the age of seventy-six years if he had lived until the 17th of this month.

"During this long life he gave unparagoned of his best for the welfare and uplifting of his fellow man. "Gifted with most exceptional ability and endowed with wonderful energy and power, he bestowed upon his varied interests high ideals and wise treatment that must ever tend to conserve their prosperity and future development. "As a financier he stands practically unequalled in our country. As a patron of art his liberality and judgment command the admiration of the civilized world. As a philanthropist his generous gifts and widespread benefactions form of themselves his noblest monument.

"As a friend his strong and abiding loyalty has brought comfort and happiness to an infinite number. "For attributes and more, the members of the Jockey Club resolve that they have lost an associate whose memory will be ever cherished and deeply respected by all."

While the Saratoga Association will stick pretty close to the old list of stake events, there will be one notable change. This will be the substitution of the Sanford Memorial Stakes for the Hurriciana. The latter event was named for the Sanford breeding farm at Amsterdam, which was the property of the late Sanford Memorial, following the death of Stephen Sanford, a fitting tribute to one of the stoutest supporters of the sport New York State has ever known. The various other stakes that long since became famous at Saratoga will be renewed and within a short time entries will be invited for the fixtures. The Hopeful, Saratoga Special, Spinaway, Saratoga Handicap, Flash, Alabama, North American Steeplechase, Grand Union, United States Hotel Stakes, Adirondack, Traveler, Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap, Huron and Saratoga Cup will be in the book as usual.

The stewards approved the following officials for the Havre de Grace meeting: Steward, E. C. Smith; Handicapper, W. S. Voshburg; Judge, H. H. Pettigill; associate judge and clerk of scales, H. T. Homan; starter, James Milton; patrol judge, W. H. Schaut; timer, W. H. Barretto; Mr. Voshburg was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club.

C. H. Pettigill's report of the Charleston meeting brought out the following from the stewards: "So much rough riding and use of the whip and the hands by jockeys against contending horses cause the stewards to warn all jockeys that such foul riding will not be tolerated and severe punishment will follow violations of the rules."

Charles Garner's application for a jockey license was denied, as was Arthur Carter's request for reinstatement.

The following officials for the Belmont Park meeting were approved: James Milton, starter; C. H. Pettigill and E. C. Smith, judges; H. T. Homan, clerk of the scales; Al Burton, assistant to clerk of the scales; J. L. Hall, patrol judge; W. H. Barretto, timer. Official approval of the dates for Belmont Park, Jamaica and Saratoga racing was also given.

James Milton, who will do the starting on the Jockey Club tracks this year, was once a printer's devil in the office of the Waco Daily Star and later was mailing manager of Brann's Iconoclast.

Barney Schreiber, with fifteen racers, arrived at Sheephead Bay today. Sam Holman is said to be seeking to buy the whole of the Schreiber horses for Canadian turfmen.

R. F. Carman, with forty-six horses, will arrive at Belmont Park tomorrow.

Fourteen yearlings bred in France by August Belmont will be shipped from France to London and then transhipped to America on a steamship which leaves London, April 29. These, with fourteen others bred in Kentucky, will be sold at auction by Mr. Belmont during the Belmont Park meeting.

W. C. Edwards, secretary of the Metropolitan Jockey Club, which races over the Jamaica course, was a visitor at the Jockey Club offices yesterday. He said that it was the intention of his association to have a revival of the Excelsior Handicap when the race meeting opens there July 8, and that many of the other fixtures of the club would also feature the meeting. Already work is going forward to have the course ready for the thoroughbreds and nothing will be lacking when the gates are thrown open.

J. G. Follansbee was also a visitor at the offices of the Jockey Club. Mr. Follansbee put in a goodly portion of the winter at the Juarez race track and he spoke enthusiastically of the character of the sport over the Mexican course. Price McKinney, who was with Mr. Follansbee at the time, was equally enthusiastic and predicted that the racing at Juarez would become better each year.

Respecting the ruling by which Jockey Grand was ordered suspended for the rest of the Jamestown meeting, which at Marlboro will not permit him to accept mounts at that track.

RAIN IMPEDES KENTUCKY TRAINING.

Unfavorable Track Conditions Cause Cessation of Fast Work at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., April 10.—The Churchill Downs and Douglas Park tracks were slushy yesterday, particularly the former course, where it became necessary to set up a flag. Many horses were exercised, but few worked fast. The Derby favorite, Hawthorn, galloped by trainer W. S. Trevey a slow mile and a half and went through the mud as handily as he raced in such going last season. Any kind of a track seems to suit the son of Hastings.

Among those timed was Blue Jay, which worked with Billy Holder three-quarters of a mile in 1:24. They ran the first quarter in :26 $\frac{1}{2}$ and the half in :53 $\frac{1}{2}$. High Private went three-eighths in :29 $\frac{1}{2}$. Little Jane a half in :54 $\frac{1}{2}$. All Red five-eighths in 1:08 $\frac{1}{2}$. High Class and Loveland a half, together, in :55, and Miller's Last and Jupiter Joe three-eighths in :30 $\frac{1}{2}$. The first quarter in :26 $\frac{1}{2}$. The last hundred yards were quite tame and trainer W. H. Buckner is dubious about getting him to the race this spring. This is to be the last trial in a training way that Jupiter Joe will have. If the son of Handsel fails to stand his present preparation he will be disposed of for saddle purposes.

E. R. Bradley stopped over today on his way to Chicago. He reports that he has declined an offer of $4,000 for the two-year-old chestnut colt Bushy Blade, a race that has made quite an impression in France. Mr. Bradley has priced the colt at $5,000 and is willing to sell at that figure, though he is not anxious to dispose of the youngster, which he and trainer Cliff Hammon regard as promising. Bushy Blade is not in the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington. If he was, Mr. Bradley would not let him go for the $5,000 he asks for him. The person who is after the youngster is said to represent an American turfman in France.

James Griffin has added to his stable here the four-year-old Charter, which was turned out all winter at Lexington. Idle Tale, in the Griffin string, is still bothered with a swelling in her ankle, which has kept him from turning out the daughter of Superann, as he contemplates doing shortly. She will not be trained until fall. While at Lexington recently, Griffin looked at J. S. McCullough's royally-bred sucking colt by Voter-Debate, the dam of the Kentucky Derby winner, Ben Brush. Debate has been mated this season with the Futurity winner, Ormonde.

J. C. Cahn has decided to leave his two-year-olds, Mike Cohen and Southern Lad, at Lexington in charge of trainer John Nichols until the Kentucky Association spring meeting ends. Both are promising. Mike Cohen is a black gelding by Mignonne—Emma Louise, the dam of Billy Beldner. Southern Lad is a brown gelding by Contender—Southern Girl, the dam of the Kentucky Derby winner, Ben Brush. Delacoe has been mated this season to Duke of Ormonde, a son of the $150,000 Epsom Derby winner, Ormonde.

Louis Tauber has shipped Spindle from Charleston to Lexington. He will not be at the Downs with his old player until the racing begins there on May 10. This is the first time Tauber has been away from the local tracks during April in a number of years.

George M. Hendrie, an eminent Canadian, the contracting superintendent in the Windsor Jockey Club, and owner of a big stable of racers, passed through this city, after having spent the winter at Naples, Fla., with John Hachmeister, manager of the Douglas Park and Latonia Jockey Clubs. Walter O. Parmer, secretary of the Windsor Jockey Club, and owner of Edenwood Farm, in Tennessee, the home of The Commoner, was also a guest of Mr. Hachmeister during Mr. Hendrie's sojourn there. Mr. Hendrie stopped here long enough to visit Douglas Park, where his racing interests are in training. He is the skillful director of John Walters. Two of the stars of the stable are Great Britain and Rile Brigade. Mr. Hendrie found every horse in fine condition. Great Britain's appearance especially appealed to him, as he said he regarded her as one of the really great racers of Canada and this country. Great Britain is an eligible for the $10,000 Kentucky Handicap and the Latonia Derby. He thinks the horse will be a sturdy contender in both events, and he regrets that he is not in Kentucky for the Kentucky Derby. Mr. Hendrie's racers will be campaigned in Kentucky until the close of the Kentucky season. He will come here for the running of the Kentucky Derby and several prominent gentlemen from Canada will accompany him.

Lyman H. Davis, secretary of the New Louisville Jockey Club, has received application blanks for trainers and jockeys licenses from the Kentucky State Racing Commission to be filled out by those who contemplate participating in the Kentucky Association meeting.

Jockeys C. Ganz and R. Goose are brothers, one using the German for Goose to avoid confusion, who who rides for E. R. Bradley, and Goose, who is employed by Adair & Baker, are examples of what good training means for boys. They appear at the Downs bright and early every morning, go through their work with a vim, and when it comes to racing, they are inseparable. They bear a striking resemblance to each other, possess good dispositions, have no bad habits, are methodical and do their best in all things. They invariably leave the track in the training season at noon, never varying a minute in the time. Last season at Douglas Park Goose rode four winners out of six mounts, on October 1. On October 19, at Latonia, Ganz duplicated this performance. Neither is twenty-one years of age. They reside with their parents in Crescent Hill, where they purchased a home out of their savings as jockeys.

Racing Secretary Edward W. Mazum will divide his time between Louisville and Latonia during the next three or four weeks, getting out the stake entry books for the coming meetings as well as the conditions of his overnight purses and handicaps to be run during the thirty-six days of racing at these two tracks. There is not much to do in improvements at present, but during his stay here this spring Manager Hachmeister will get everything in readiness for work which it is planned to do during the coming summer, including the building of a clubhouse on the south side of the grandstand where there are many shade trees to add to its beauty. The management of the track mean to make the plant ultimately the equal of any race track grounds in the world in point of beauty and convenience.

COLORADO RACING BILL PASSES SENATE.

Denver, Colo., April 10.—The bill providing for the appointment of a state commission to govern racing in Colorado was passed by the Senate yesterday in concurrence with the lower branch of the Legislature and now goes to the governor for approval. The passage of the bill through the Senate was marked by an acrimonious debate and the vote was 20 to 15. If Governor Ammons approves the bill it is planned to have a June meeting at Overland Park with the pari-mutuels as the method of speculation. The bill contains betting to that system.

VALLEY FARM HORSES WINTER WELL.

Something of the String That Will Carry the Hendrie Colors on Canadian Tracks This Season.

Toronto, Ont., April 10.—Trainer Ed. Whyte has arrived at Woodbine with the horses of Hon. J. S. Hendrie and his brother George M., and they are stabled in the old quarters, under the tall trees. They wintered at the Valley Farm, and it was thought best to make one shipment to the first point of racing, rather than go to the Hamilton Jockey Club track for a brief spell, as was first intended.

The horses enjoyed a fine winter at the Valley Farm near Hamilton in charge of trainer Whyte and return to the track in much better condition this spring than when they went into winter quarters. The stable has been entirely free from sickness of any description and the horses all look well.

For the first time in many years only one nomination has been made to the King's Plate, that being Rockspring. He is now a four-year-old and was also entered in the Valley Farm and it was thought best to make one shipment to the first point of racing, rather than go to the Hamilton Jockey Club track for a brief spell, as was first intended.

The horses enjoyed a fine winter at the Valley Farm near Hamilton in charge of trainer Whyte and return to the track in much better condition this spring than when they went into winter quarters. The stable has been entirely free from sickness of any description and the horses all look well.

White Caps is much improved. He has put on about 100 pounds in weight and has lost that lanky appearance which was noticeable also in Powderman. Of four appearances under colors last year, two were victories and one third. His best effort was at Fort Erie, when he won at a mile in 1:41 $\frac{1}{2}$. He was badly cut down in his last race at the Windsor summer meeting, which he won and was then retired. The injury has apparently left no evil effects, as he is going along soundly.

Tankard, Sweet Story and Micosukee, now three-year-olds, are Whitney-bred stock purchased from Albert Simons early last summer. They should carry the brown, with orange sleeves, jacket to the front on many occasions this season. Tankard has proven himself to be the best of the trio, with four wins to his credit as a two-year-old. In his last ten starts he was only once unplaced. He has plenty of early speed and in the Grey Stakes at Woodbine, at a mile, he was a creditable third, which indicates that he should develop into a stayer. He is looking exceptionally well.

The chestnut filly, Sweet Story, is still a maiden, but has been unfortunate in many ways, and only had racing luck prevented her from graduating from the maiden class at Windsor, when she was beaten half a length in a drive by Barnegat. She was on the ailing list last fall and was lanced in a number of places. This daughter of Hamburg-Sallie of Navarre, has filled out nicely and should do well this season.

Micosukee displayed her true form on one occasion only, when she defeated a good band of youngsters at the Windsor fall meeting in commanding style. This one has done well over winter and is most certain to show much improvement this season.

Old Denham, although turning gray with age, will be given another chance this year. His underpinning went back on him early last spring. After a year's rest he is going strong again. Denham is undoubtedly the fastest horse ever bred in Canada at any distance up to a mile. He also won the Durham Cup at one and three-quarter miles, but from a mediocre lot.

There are six two-year-olds in the stable, part of which are the property of George M. Hendrie and if appearances are to be considered, they should be formidable under colors. They are all home-bred and scored quarters last fall, as yearlings, in :25 and better. The list follows:

Henham, ch. g., by David Garrick-Flicker. Martena, b. f., by Martinmas-Placena. Martola, br. f., by Martinmas-Losola. Saltfleet, ch. g., by Martinmas-Firewater. Slipper Day, br. f., by Martinmas-Bing Grouse. Stony Creek, b. g., by David Garrick-Springwells.

Henham is a tall, rangy fellow of the type of White Caps and Powderman, while Saltfleet and Martena are big-bodied and muscular-looking youngsters. The former is a half-brother to Glimmer and Martena is a half-sister to Parmer, a King's Plate winner. Slipper Day and Martola, the former in particular, are built more on racy lines and are fine types of the thoroughbred.

Rit, a three-year-old bay filly, well thought of by her owner, George M. Hendrie, is also in the string, but as she has never raced, her capabilities are unknown.

The yearlings at Valley Farm number ten, and are the best-looking crop produced there in many years. Five are by Martinmas, four by David Garrick and one by Red Fox II. Three foals have arrived, from Springfield, Tenagami and Logan Water, all by David Garrick, and ten mares are yet to foal.

Jockeys F. Hewitt, S. Wilson and A. Shiton are doing the exercising for the stable, all three having grown too heavy to ride in races. Hewitt rode for the Alberta Stakes of B. S. Mitchell a few seasons ago and S. Wilson for the Late John Pymont.

There has been a general weeding out of the string since last fall. Powderman was sold to Hugh Wilson, with the expectation of being converted into a high jumper for the show ring. R. R. Morgan, of Saskatchewan, Sask., got Le d'Or, a mola, two of last year's disappointments for the King's Plate. Connolly died en route to the west. Brant, now a three-year-old, was sold to Strathern & Thompson, of Hamilton, after proving a failure for racing purposes. The filly Golden Syrup is now the property of a local army officer, and is being used for saddle purposes.

MARLBORO PATRONAGE FALLS OFF.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Cold weather, coupled with the fact that the local baseball season began, resulted in a falling off in the attendance at the Marlboro track this afternoon. At the same time the crowd that made the journey from this city and Baltimore, was fairly large. Speculation was lively, as the fields were well matched. Some good racing was witnessed, there being several close finishes.

The fourth race, a selling affair at one mile and a sixteenth, attracted the best field of the afternoon and Supervisor won another race for Joseph Cuda when he beat his opposition in a canter. Cuttyhunk was an even money favorite, but met with bad racing luck, being pocketed so that he could not get a chance to show his speed until the race was over. Otlio, on which there was a strong tip, acted as pacemaker until the far turn was reached. Then Supervisor moved up with a rush on the outside and, taking the lead without any trouble, just entered along for the rest of the trip and reached the judges' stand six lengths in advance of Otlio.

Earl of Richmond, which finished second in the fifth race, fared just as badly as Cuttyhunk, as he was much the best, but was penned in for the greater part of the way and could never get through until the stretch was reached.

Jockey Pickens resumed riding and, while he had several mounts during the afternoon, the best he could do was to finish second with Otlio and third with Galinda and Stedcliff. W. C. Weant, who owns these horses, thought he had an excellent chance to win all three purses, but luck was against him.

After several disappointments during the meeting, Lord Wells finally made good in the third race when he led from start to finish and won easily.

PALANQUIN HAS BAD LUCK

ALBERT SIMONS' GOOD THREE-YEAR-OLD IS BEATEN AT NORFOLK.

Gets Tangled Up at Start of Handicap and Tires
After Running a Fast Quarter in Making Up Lost Ground.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—Favorites were bowled over with a regularity that was painful at the Norfolk track this afternoon, all six of the first choices going down to defeat. Bad riding was responsible for the defeat of some of the choices, this being especially true of Royal Message and Star Gift. Montour, who had the mount on both of them, left the post in both races with the tailenders.

Palanquin, heavily supported at odds-on, was probably the greatest disappointment of the afternoon. When he left the barrier his martingales became entangled in his knees and the colt did not get settled into his stride until after they had gone a sixteenth. When he moved toward the leaders, he showed a fine turn of speed, running the quarter down the backstretch in better than twenty-three seconds. There were some fast ones in front of him, however, and the excessive use made of him told when it came to the stretch racing and he weakened.

Free Trade, which had worked well since his last race, ran to his best form in the opener. Koerner was active at the barrier and beat the others away from the post. In the stretch racing Free Trade showed good courage and standing off a challenge from Chas. Cannell, drew away in the final drive. Monocacy, the Palmetto Derby winner, beat a moderate lot of three-year-olds in the Kenwood purse, a five and a half furlong dash, for which Exton ruled favorite. Chuckles, who was the favorite, "good thing" in this race, and he was a factor for a time, when he raced head and head with Monocacy until well into the homestretch. At the end, the latter shook off his opposition, but had to be ridden out to win by a scant half length.

The halfbreeds were again busy this afternoon. Question Mark, winner of the fifth race, was bid up $200 over his entered price and Clem Beachey was advanced $100 after he won the closing dash. Both horses were protected by their owners. After Star Gift was beaten there was a rush for the secretary's office by a number of horsemen who have been prominent in selling race run-ups and other famous horses. Three claims were filed. Star Gift again came time to open them it was found that all were for the filly Star Gift. Sam Louis, William Cahill and Jerry Maloney were all anxious to secure the filly and in the drawing William Cahill held the winner. At Hammill, who won the last race, pulled up lame and was led to the stable in a limping condition. Moore Johnson did the bidding on Question Mark and George Boyle on Clem Beachey. Several horses changed hands at private sale this afternoon. At Hammill, who won the last race, Notasuga in partnership with Henry Brulaton on the eastern tracks a few seasons ago, purchased Auction from Archie Zimmer, while W. E. Burke secured H. M. Sabath from Matt Foster. H. C. Breckenridge bought Henry Hutchison of C. H. Wolf.

Rye Straw is again in Willie Martin's stable. The latter repurchased the gelding from J. W. Hedrick, who took him out of a selling race a few days ago.

Jockey Charlie Grand telephoned over from Washington asking the stewards to give him a hearing before any further action is taken in the Irish Kid case and the matter was held over by the officials until tomorrow.

Pawhuska, which was purchased for pony polo racing at Juarez last fall, was shipped to New York today. He had been training well since his arrival here.

MR. PRATT NOT YET THROUGH.

Toronto, Ont., April 10.—It was because of a technical flaw in the wording of the measure that Arthur C. Pratt, member for South Norfolk, has decided to withdraw from the Legislature his bill to establish a commission for the regulation of racing in Ontario.

One of the flaws in the bill is the omission of the word "horse," though obviously it was the intention to confine the legislation exclusively to horse racing.

Under the rules of the House Mr. Pratt cannot introduce a new bill this session, but instead will bring up a resolution before the Legislature embodying his views on the subject. Mr. Pratt said today that his resolution is now in the hands of Sir James Whitney, the premier, and that it was to the effect that the government should take steps in regard to the proper taxation of race tracks in the province and also the establishment of some plan of systematic control.

"This resolution will come up in the House at an early date," said Mr. Pratt, "and I will express my views on the subject. One point I wish to emphasize is the objection to the employment of alien labor among the officials at race tracks, such as judges and clerks of the scale. There are other phases, too, that I desire to discuss, and on which the Legislature should take action."

Mr. Pratt's proposal was for the formation of a commission of five members, three of whom were to be breeders and raisers of thoroughbred stock; a secretary with a salary of $1,200 a year to be appointed by the commission.

The bill stated that the commission should have the power to prescribe rules, regulations and conditions under which running races should be conducted in this province, and no such races should be held except by a corporation or association duly licensed by the commission. Any corporation desiring a racing meeting annual or otherwise, would have to apply to the commission for a license, and if in the judgment of the commission a proper case for the issuance of the license was shown, the license might be granted for a term of one year.

The license would be subject to the rules, regulations and conditions from time to time prescribed by and would be revocable by the commission for any violation of the regulations. Whenever the continuation of such license was deemed by the commission not conducive to the interest of legitimate racing, it could be cancelled, but for this cancellation the commission must publicly state its reason.

TRAINING NEWS FROM LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 8.—(Special Correspondence).—The weather was cold this morning and a high wind was blowing, but the track of the Kentucky Association was fast and quite a number of horses were at work. Will McDaniel had Foundation out and that Kentucky Derby candidate showed evidence of being in the finest of fettle. With his weight up, the son of Nasturium went a mile in 1:44 1/2 and a mile and an eighth in 1:58. He could have gone much faster had he been permitted to. Other work-outs were as follows:

Banorella—Three-quarters in 1:19. Appeared anxious to run.
Batonche—Seven-eighths in 1:32, easily. Has plenty of early speed.
Breaker—Three-eighths in 36 1/2, over the hill. This is Woodford Clay's Breeder's Futurity eligible and it was a good move. He had considerable weight up.

Clinton—One of the Blue Grass Stakes candidates in W. J. Young's stable, mile in 1:44, handily.
Cream—Three-quarters in 1:24. This one has developed into a grand looking filly.
Flora Fina—Three-quarters in 1:19. Anxious to run.

Harry Louden—Mile in 1:47, cantering.
Harwood—Three-quarters in 39, handily. Worked with San Jon and looks fine.
Joe Morris—Three-quarters in 1:21. Is being gone along with slowly, as he is still high in flesh.

Manager Mack—Mile in 1:44, handily. Is training better than ever before.
San Jon—Three-eighths in 39, handily. Looks fine after a brief respite from training.
Sebago—Three-quarters in 1:19, well in hand. Still a little high in flesh, but seemingly in the best of health.

Sonada—Mile in 1:48, cantering. Howard Oots is training this horse slowly, as he took on a lot of weight during the winter.
Starter—Five-eighths in 1:30, handily. She looks fit and showed a fine turn of speed.
Three Links—Half mile in 51. Showed some of his old-time speed and is training well.

George B. Ott had out his two Breeder's Futurity candidates, The Gander and The Penman. They went a half mile over the half mile in 51 and 52, respectively. This was good work, considering the rawness of the morning and the weight they had up. The Penman is a half brother to Foundation, but is unlike the latter in appearance. He is big and small in size, while Foundation is big and a mahogany chestnut.

J. D. Keene schooled his two-year-olds at the barrier and they all acted as if they liked the innovation.

DERBY CANDIDATES AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—A Kentucky Derby candidate which is beginning to attract considerable attention is the magnificent looking McKorkie, whose training is directed by that pastmaster of the art, T. C. McDowell, and which has worked as well as any three-year-old at the track, excepting the sensational Foundation. McKorkie is by the late James R. Keene's famous race horse Disguise, which, invading England, won the $50,000 Jockey Club Stakes and was one of the top choices for the Epsom Derby.

It would be hard to find a better shaped horse than McKorkie, and the fact he is a yearling, his work indicated that he would be a star of the first magnitude. Last spring as a two-year-old also he showed so well in training as to be considered decidedly the best of his age at the Lexington track, and it was unanimously believed that he had a brilliant racing career before him. He met with various mishaps at the beginning of the racing season, and though he was held back till late in the season in the hope of getting him right, his races were disappointing.

However, those who have watched him closely do not believe that he is only a morning glory, and as he was big and growing colt last season and was therefore given an easy campaign, both his trainer, Major McDowell, and his owner, W. L. McCracken, are confident that this year he will redeem the promise of his early training. The colt certainly has abundant speed and is a good weight carrier.

Over at the Keene barn, which shelters the Camden horses, no uneasiness is felt concerning the prospects of the local Derby favorite, Helios. Never a flake or rangy horse, Helios has followed out his lines as a two-year-old and though comparatively low in stature he has thickened out and muscled up, and is distinctively "all horse."

Helios makes no unnecessary show, and is now, as at this time last year, before he deflected all the cracks of his age, doing all that is asked of him. Neither is trainer Keene worrying. He knows the horse, and has unbounded faith in him. There probably will be no announcements this spring, as there was none last season, of second or third string horses, for it is in his races alone that Helios has always shown his quality.

BREEDING BUREAU DONATES TROPHY.

Montreal, Que., April 10.—As an encouragement to farmers and other owners of mares other than thoroughbreds to breed to stallions of the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding, at whose request the management of the Montreal Horse Show added a class for the "get" of such a year ago, the bureau will donate a cup and prizes again this spring. The adding of this class was with a view to improve the breeding of saddle horses and hunters throughout the province and is sure to bring about the desired effect.

Last spring a likely-looking lot were shown and this season there should be even better quality, as well as an increase in the number of exhibitors. The bureau has offered their cup and prizes to the class for the best yearling colt or filly, by a bureau stallion, out of other than a thoroughbred mare. The competition this year will bring out the second crop of the bureau stallions. It promises to be a large one as many foals were registered last spring and summer.

In the past two or three years the farmers, perhaps more particularly than any of the other owners of such mares, have accepted the opportunities offered to breed to bureau stallions throughout the province and are breeding to them more liberally each spring, so that marked improvement should soon begin to show itself.

This event was a year ago by Athol, a likely looking chestnut filly by Masterman and exhibited by Andrew Shearer. Athol was a splendid specimen of the mating of a cold-blooded mare with a thoroughbred stallion. She has every early sign so far as bone and substance are concerned, and of the type most suitable for a hunter or saddle horse. "Colonel," a colt by the same sire, exhibited by Col. J. H. Burland, was second. Keener competition is already assured, as the intimation of owners of such foals who have signified their intention of competing during the Montreal Horse Show, from May 7 to 10, inclusive.

GREAT LOSS TO AUSTRIAN BREEDING.

Gouvernant, which some time since met with an accident, splitting his pastern badly while being exercised, is believed to have received a mortal blow. His loss will fall heavily on breeders in Austria and Hungary. He was one of the best foals of Flying Fox in 1901, and made an excellent record when racing on the turf. He is highly nervous, and objected strongly to the starting gate as well as to thunder and lightning, and possibly this trait in his character may have led his breeder to prefer his half brother, Ajax, for stud purposes as the representative of the breed's season at Jardy de l'Orme and Vampire, while the second season was productive of the grand trio—Adam, Jardy, and Val d'Or. As a four-year-old he won eight out of twelve races, brought by Mr. A. von Balazs for a syndicate of breeders and owners, consisting of the Austrian Jockey Club, Mr. Dreher, Mr. Mautner von Markhof, and Baron Springer, great things were expected from him at the stud. He calmed down, and lost that nervousness shown in his racing days. His loss is more appreciable since the victory of Louden, one of the handsomest colts in the paddock at Hirschheim last August, when he asserted his claim as candidate for favoritism in the classic events of this year by beating a good band in the Futurity Stakes, ridden by F. Bullock, in the colors of the Royal Gruditz Stud. He sired another good colt, Jomir, for Austro-Hungary, which was beaten by Louden after a determined clash in the Esterhazy Memorial, and a colt by Gouvernant out of Javorina, brother to Jomir, brought top price this year, 1,840 sovereigns, at the Nagapreda sales.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

E. Gittings Merlyman, one of the foremost of Maryland amateur riders, died Tuesday at his home near Baltimore. He was greatly interested in the thoroughbred and was a breeder on a modest scale. C. F. Buschmeyer seldom misses seeing a great of his gelding Hawthorn. He is completely wrapped up in the great three-year-old and does not think there is a horse that can beat Hawthorn with an even break.

W. F. Schulte's racing string now consists only of a couple of colts, King Billy and the filly by Sempronius, called King Billy, and the other is a filly by Sir Huon—Grand Mary. King Olympian is running out at the Schulte farm near Louisville and probably will not be taken up until fall.

At St. Cloud, near Paris, France, last Monday, H. B. Durand's bay filly, named by Irish Lad, Frizette, won the principal race of the day, the Prix Simonian of $16,000 to the winner. On the same day W. K. Vanderbilt's horses won two races, his Satilla winning the Prix des Loges of $800 and his Belvedere winning the Prix de Pommeroy of $1,200 to the winner.
